DIARY ENTRY

Imagine what it would be like to travel back in time to live alongside ancient giant mushrooms, just like the prehistoric mushrooms in Can Mushrooms Save the World?. Use the space below to write a diary entry all about it.

Feeling stuck? Try some of these...

- Describe the place where you found the giant mushroom.
Where were you? What was around you at the time?
- Describe what the mushroom looked like.
Think about the size, colour, and texture.
- Describe how you would be feeling.
Would you be excited, nervous, or something else?

SUPER-MOULD

Super-Mould is a superhero who has decided to create a medicine made out of fungi!
Draw what you think Super-Mould looks like below.

Feeling stuck? Try some of these hints...

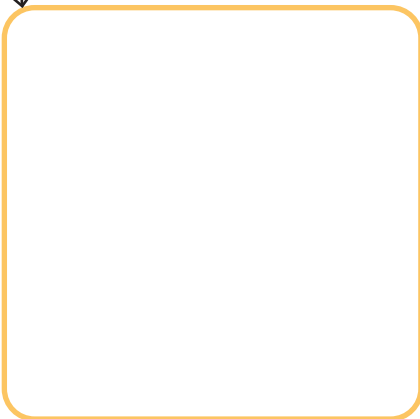

- What is your superhero wearing?
- Are they wearing a cape? Or maybe they have a magic object like a wand!
- What colour is your superhero?

SUPER-MOULD COMIC

Now you have drawn what Super-Mould looks like, it's time to go on an adventure. Below are some sentences; draw an image to match each sentence to create your own comic. There are also clues as to what to draw for each image in bold.

Draw a bowl of fresh fruit.

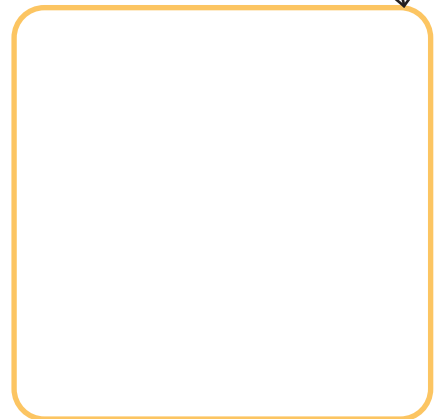

Super-Mould has brought some fruit from the shop and put it into a bowl to save for later.

Draw a bowl of fruit with mould growing on it.

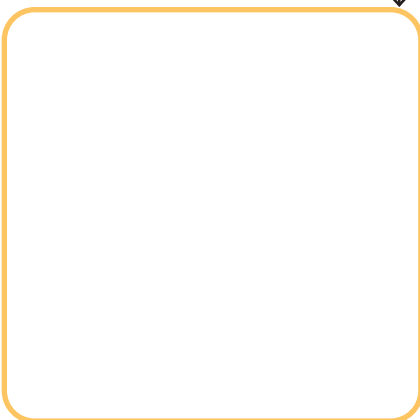

Oh no! Super-Mould has left the fruit for too long and it has started to grow mould.

Draw a microscope, like in the image in the book.

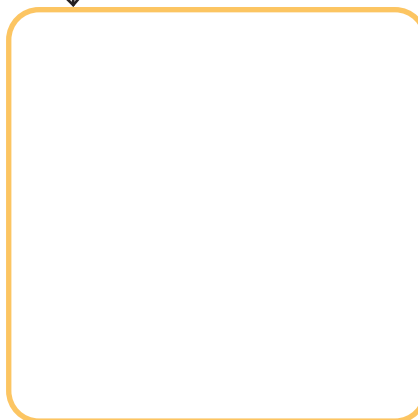

Super-Mould gets the super microscope out to investigate the mould closer.

Draw what you think the mould could look like up close.

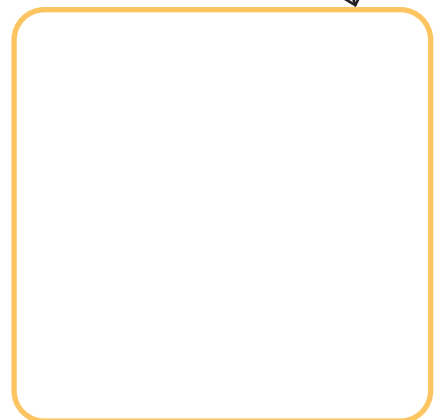

Super-Mould looks closely at the mould and sees how strange it looks!

Draw what the medicine might look like.

Super-Mould decides to use their superpowers and turn the mould into medicine!

Draw everyone happy and cheering!

Super-Mould saved the world with the mushroom medicine!
